

The L Magazine

Editors' Picks

Deborah Brown: The Bushwick Paintings

Wednesdays-Sundays. Continues through Feb. 20

212-410-6120

ART

www.lesleyheller.com/artists/deborah_brown/index.html

Bushwick-based painter Jim Herbert tells us that the light in his neighborhood is really something special, which reminds us of reading Cezanne's correspondences in which he'd wax lyrical about the Provencal sun to his buddies up in Paris. They eventually came around, and so have we, in no small part thanks to Deborah Brown's paintings of trees, shoe-strung power lines and razor wire-coiffed walls against spectacular North Brooklyn skies.

- Lesley Heller Workspace
 - 54 Orchard Street, between Hester and Grand Streets (map)
 - Lower East Side
 - 212-410-6120